

[Essay Subject]

There is a proverb “Cannot see the wood for trees”, which means that you cannot recognize phenomena and problems from a systematic viewpoint by being stuck on small fragments. Give an example of a problem referred to this proverb, which really takes place in our society, and propose your countermeasures to solve the problem in 400 words.