

[Essay Subject]

How do you understand research at a graduate school?

Explain any differences from or similarities to research and development at an enterprise or exercises at a class, using your research plan at this school as an example within 400 words.