

[Essay Subject]

Regarding your research work, which you are currently executing or planning to do in the near future, describe its summary and significance of expected results in 400 words. List up major stakeholders (persons or organizations that are involved or may be affected) and explain the value for those stakeholders.